

CAREFUL NOT TO EMBARRASS PRES. WILSON

President-Elect Harding Does Not Want to Presume on Wilson Authority.

BIG WELCOME IN SOUTH
Thongs Watch Next President's Train on Way to Vacation
in Texas.

(By Raymond Clapper)
By United Press Leased Wire
Brownsville, Texas.—President-elect Harding was taken to a luncheon at the country club immediately upon his arrival here today.

Crowds massed on the sidewalks to see the next chief executive. There was no organized demonstration.
Harding having been promised he would not be asked to take part in any formal affair.

Mid-summer heat prevailed here today, while the atmosphere at Point
Isabel was tempered with sea breezes.
After luncheon the Harding party
left for Point Isabel in automobiles,
the president-elect being scheduled to go direct to the R. B. Creager cottage.

On Board Harding's special, enroute to Point Isabel, Texas, for forty-eight hours continuous travel, President-elect Warren G. Harding was nearing the southernmost tip of Texas
today where he will spend ten days fishing and golfing.

His special train was due to arrive at Brownsville at 11:30 a. m. There the party will take automobiles for the 20 mile ride to Point Isabel on La Guna re Madre, an inlet of the Gulf of Mexico.

Politics, office seekers and all
weighty matters will be taboo.
Senator Harding's daily program will be fishing half of each day and golfing the other half.

Despite Harding's effort to avoid speeches enroute, he has made a documentary.

It was difficult for Harding to keep within the sabbath prohibitions, so insistent were the Texas throngs at every station. Many apparently motored long distances for parking around each railroad station were dozens of autos covered with the bright red clay of eastern Texas.

Mexicans and broad sombreros were much in evidence around the stations.
At one stop Harding caught a pencil
of a blind peddler. He and Mrs.
Harding also rode in the engine cab for half an hour. Everywhere they were given warm receptions which recalled the campaign trips of a few weeks ago.

Discuss World Court

Advisers close to President-elect Harding believe the conference with American leaders which begin at Marion as soon as the senator is back from his vacation, will deal with the questions of an international court huilt around The Hague tribunal and a supplementary association of nations which would be organized largely for the purpose of conference. Decisions of the conference would be in the form of recommendations which would have sufficient moral weight to attract the support of member nations.

Senator Harding's conduct as president-elect would be guided by a strong desire to do nothing that might cause embarrassment to President Wilson or appear to be an attempt to undermine his authority in international affairs.

Senator Harding feels the delicacy of his position particularly because of the complicated international situation and he is making every effort to avoid doing anything which might appear to be anticipating assumption of presidential authority. He believes he can properly confer with leading Americans even before taking office and he has arranged to do this as a time having measure so that he can go into office with his international court and world association plans well formulated.

No Mex. Conference

They will then have reached the stage where representatives of foreign nations can be called in to confer over plans which have been approved by leaders of various groups of American thought. Senator Harding will not see President-elect Obregon, of Mexico, while on the border. His view is that it would be a marked impropriety and discourtesy to President Wilson.

In his Texas speeches Senator
Harding is taking opportunity to cultivate relations between the north and south. He is emphasizing that there is no partisan rancor in his heart.

HINDU MERCHANT IS CALLED WHITE SLAVER

By United Press Leased Wire
Chicago.—James Wittichell, 35, a British subject, believed to be the son of a wealthy Saigon, Hindu merchant, was arrested by justice department officials
on a charge of violating the Mann act
here today.

He was held on $5,000 bond.
The warrant, issued in San Francisco, charges Wittichell transported Miss Helen Dawson, governess of his two children, from Saigon, Hindu, to San Francisco.

When arrested Wittichell declared he was enroute to San Francisco to fight divorce proceedings instituted by his wife. He said he stopped off in Chicago to consummate negotiations with the Goodyear Rubber company for the construction of a dirigible to carry passengers from Saigon, Hindu, to Paris, France.

MORE FREEDOM FOR JAPS UNDER PROPOSED PACT

State Department Said to Be Working on New Japanese Agreement.

WOULD NULLIFY STATE LAW
Proposed Treaty Will Give Japs
Same Rights as Other Foreigners Have.

(By A. L. Bradford)
Washington.—A treaty under which Japanese would be exempted from American laws discriminatory to Asiatics, is being considered at the state department, it was reported here today.

Such a pact would be one way of meeting the Japanese protests against the new California law prohibiting ownership of land by Japanese and other Asiatics.

Negotiations as a result of this proposal have been in progress for some weeks.

A treaty naturally would nullify all provisions of state laws contrary to its provisions.

While neither the state department
nor the Japanese embassy would admit such a treaty had been proposed,
it is understood to have been considered in the negotiations which are being conducted by Roland S. Morris, American ambassador to Tokyo, and Ambassador Shidehara, the mikado's envoy here.

The drafting of such a pact has not yet begun, and neither the United States offered the proposed treaty to Japan, President Wilson and Secretary of State Clegg are understood not yet to have decided on the plan.

As now being considered, the treaty
would guarantee to Japanese subjects
in this country the same land rights given to most foreigners here, it is said.

2 ADMIT SLAYING BANK MESSENGER

Auto Salesman and Accomplice Arrested for Robbery and Murder.

By United Press Leased Wire
Camden, N. J.—Frank J. James, automobile salesman, and Raymond W. Schuck, alleged accomplice, were in jail here today awaiting a preliminary hearing on the charge of murdering David S. Paul, aged bank messenger who disappeared Oct 5 with $40,000 in cash while enroute to a Philadelphia bank.

Both James and Schuck are alleged to have signed confessions. According to the statement attributed to the statement attributed to James and Schuck, he and James while on an automobile ride near Paul, James offered to drive the messenger to Philadelphia.

As they neared the ferry, where traffic always draws individual suspense, Schuck said James struck Paul with a hammer, knocking him unconscious. Schuck said James fired two bullets into the old man's head.

They then threw the body into a small stream near Tabernacle. Returning to Camden, Schuck and James buried most of the money in a cemetery. On Oct 14 they drove to Tabernacle and removed the body
burning it in a shallow grave nearby.

It was found by a hunter two days
later.

The police have recovered the buried money.

In his alleged confession, James declared that craving for money caused him to commit the crime.

MISSING MAN'S BODY IS FOUND IN RIVER

By United Press Leased Wire
Reedsburg, Wis.—The body of Norman Woodworth, 47, secretary of the Presbyterian Sunday school here, was found in the Reedsburg river last night by a searching party. Citizens, aroused by the blowing of the fire whistle, turned out en masse to join in the hunt after Mrs. Woodworth had reported her husband missing.

Just before dark some of the searchers found Woodworth's cap on the bank of the river. Townspeople are unable to account for the drowning.
Each Sunday he was in the habit of passing out the Sunday school papers to the children of his church. Yesterday he delivered the bundle to the church but left immediately.

TAKE ALLEGED AUTO THIEVES TO CHICAGO

Sgt. William Cox of the Chicago police force arrived in Appleton on Monday morning to take charge of William Lencione and Arthur Larson, who were arrested here Saturday for the alleged theft of a Chicago automobile. The officer said that this is the third time the men have been arrested for the same offense, and that they appear to be members of a gang operating at Kenosha. The three men left for Chicago on a morning train.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kaphingst of Black Creek visited in Appleton Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gruett and son Wilmer of Porters, were visitors in the city Saturday.

Wilson Preparing His Last Letter To Congress

(By L. C. Martin)
By United Press Leased Wire
Washington.—President Wilson is preparing his final message to congress.

The message is to be delivered to the final session of the sixty-sixth congress which begins on December 6.

Wilson has been at work on it for some time and is understood to have members of his cabinet's opinions discussed portions of it with various members of his cabinet, though he has not confided in any of them its exact contents.

The president has not told anyone
whether he will mention the treaty and the league covenant in the message. It is understood that it will be devoted mostly to domestic matters and will contain recommendations for tax revision, will repeat in effect the previous recommendations for legislation to reduce the cost of living in any omendation.

Some part of each working day is being devoted to preparation of the message. The president makes notes with a pencil, later dictating them to his personal stenographer. No longer is he able to pound out his messages on the old typewriter which he uses in the preparation of many historic state papers.

There is small likelihood of the president delivering the message in person. It is expected to be read to them by house and senate reading clerks on Tuesday, Dec 7.

PASTOR-SLEUTH SHOWS REAL GRIT
Man Who Killed Alleged Boot-legger Refuses to Quit
His Post.

By United Press Leased Wire
Windsor, Ont.—Rev. J. O. L.
Spracklin, Sandwich minister liquor sleuth, being held here pending an inquest into the death of Beverly Trumble, roadhouse proprietor who was shot by Rev. Spracklin Saturday morning, will retain his position as license inspector for the border cities district if acquitted.

The accused minister declared his intention of sticking to his post today.
"I have no intention of being scared
from my post by the liquor interests," he said.

Spracklin's life is said to have been threatened by bootleggers, rum runners if he again attempts to function
as liquor sleuth.

No action has been taken by the Methodist church of which he is pastor at Windsor, it was learned today.

Earlier reports said the church had decided to unfrock the minister as a result of Saturday's killing.

Rev. Spracklin spent Sunday at Chatham, near here. Accompanied by an officer, he was said to have been spirited away from the Windsor jail
as renewed threats of violence were heard.

Rev. Spracklin killed Trumble while making a raid on his roadhouse. The inquest which was held late into Saturday night, will be resumed tonight.
There are conflicting stories as to whether the man who was shot was armed when the minister killed him.

GERMAN REDS CELEBRATE RUSSIAN REVOLUTION
(By Carl D. Groat)
By United Press Leased Wire
Berlin.—Roaring red battle hymns
and preaching inflammatory doctrines, 3,000 communists held a demonstration in the Lustgarten here today.

Despite the fiery speeches and the threatening songs, the demonstration was peaceable.

Speakers advocated the seizure of factories, cancellation of debts and cancellation of war bonds held by the entente. The soviet was praised and capitalism condemned. Workers had been called upon to arm for observance of the anniversary of the Russian revolution. The communists, carrying red flags and wearing the soviet insignia, paraded to the Lustgarten in picturesque lines. A strong cordon of police surrounded the government buildings but the parade turned off into side streets before reaching that section.

SINN FEINERS MARCH AROUND WHITE HOUSE

By United Press Leased Wire
Washington.—As long as Sinn Fein sympathizers remain peaceable in the silent processions around the White House, police will probably not molest them.

The Sinn Fein sympathizers have announced they will march around the White House in silent protest for as many days as Terence MacSwiney conducted his hunger strike. The first march with several hundred in line was staged last night.

Hotel Room Is Robbed

By United Press Leased Wire
Chicago.—Diamonds and jewelry valued at $25,000 belonging to Arthur Reisch, of the firm of Reisch and Rot-tenberg of New York, were stolen from a hotel room here, according to a report made to police today.

SOVIETS CLAIM MORE SUCCESSSES IN CRIMEA

By United Press Leased Wire
Kiev.—Bolshevik authorities today claimed General Wrangel had been severed from his base in the Crimea. Capture of much booty and thousands of prisoners was announced.

According to the official statement,
soviet troops have driven Wrangel back from the seven mile neck of the peninsula and surrounded large groups of his army. The important cities of Derzovsk, Hsilekovo and Novo Alexandrovsk have fallen to the Reds,
the statement said.

COLORADO COAL MINERS
RETURN TO THEIR JOBS

By United Press Leased Wire
Denver.—The strike of 2,500 coal miners in the northern Colorado fields
which began a week ago Thursday, ended today as the men returned to work at all the mines in the district.
The state industrial commission has set Nov. 13 as the date for the hearing of the controversy between miners and operators over a wage adjustment and working agreement.

CROSSED ATLANTIC 1068 TIMES

CAPT. A. R. MILLS

New York.—This man, Captain Arthur R. Mills, has crossed the Atlantic 1068 times! He has been with the American line for 41 years, during which time his cross-Atlantic service has resulted in his steaming more than 3,000,000 miles, a distance equal to 128 times around the world. His vessels have carried more than half a million people—and without the loss of a single life! He was given the Cross of the Legion of Honor by France in 1917 for towing the disabled cruiser "Jeanne d'Arc" 400 miles to the Azores. Captain Mills, who has just retired, has sailed for England to take a holiday rest in the country of his birth.

RUMLEY FACES TRIAL ON OLD WAR CHARGE

By United Press Leased Wire
New York.—Edward E. Rumley assured owners of the New York Mail
on his word of honor that the buyers
he presented were American citizens.
Henry L. Stoddard told a jury here today.

Stoddard was the first witness in Rumley's trial on charges of conspiracy to conceal the German interest of the Mail while it was under his nominal control.

Stoddard assumed charge of the Mail when Rumley was indicted on charges of violating the trading with the enemy act.

Harold Harper, special counsel for the government, outlined his case today by declaring he would show the $750,000 paid for the Mail came from Dr. Heinrich Albert, German fiscal agent in the United States. He also said he would show that $1,154,000
paid between June 1, 1915 and April 1, 1917 came from the German government. Rumley, he said, would be shown to have acted as the agent for Bernhard Dernburg in propaganda designed to influence Germans, Irish-Americans and Roman Catholics toward the German cause.

JEALOUS LOVER ADMITS MURDERING SWEETHEART

By United Press Leased Wire
St. Louis.—Albert Ellis, alleged confessed murderer of 18 year old Edna Ellis, his former sweetheart, was in jail today awaiting the action of the grand jury.

The alleged confession followed three hours of steady questioning by authorities during which time they disproved an alibi that Ellis spent the morning following the murder with an acquaintance.

Jealousy was given as the motive
for the murder.

The body of Edna Ellis, pretty telephone operator, was found in a vacant lot Friday. She had been slashed numerous times with a razor.

Many Guesses At Wilson's Plans After March 4, 1921

By United Press Leased Wire
Washington.—If Woodrow Wilson,
private citizen, does all the things gossips here have credited him with planning, he will be one of the busiest mortals in the United States after March 4, 1921.

According to stories heard here,
Wilson plans a long trip; he plans to move to California; he is going to seclude himself in the Virginia mountains; he will become a Maryland farmer; he will accept an important post with the league of nations, and in his spare moments he will write many books.

Real estate men hereabouts with an eye to booming prices in certain localities have informed the public that the president is negotiating for a home here or there. He'd have to be a multimillionaire to buy all the property which he is said to have bought or to be just on the point of buying.

As a matter of fact, Wilson's plans are known to himself and his family
and perhaps to a few close friends,
but to no one else.

He hasn't told J. P. Tumulty, his secretary, what he is going to do or where he will live after March 4.

Wilson has stated his intention of writing the history of what may come to be known as the "Wilson era" in American history.

He is expected to tell the story of the peace conference at Versailles as it has never been told and to contribute articles on politics as viewed from the inside.

Because of his health, he is expected to live either in Washington
or nearby in Virginia or Maryland.
The best information about that, however, is that the president and Mrs.
Wilson haven't fully decided where they'll live.

Congresswoman Hopes To Make Good Because Women Pray For Her

RUM STORED BEFORE JANUARY 16 IS SAFE

Supreme Court Holds Volstead Act Does Not Cover
All Cases.

Washington.—Supreme court today
held that liquor acquired for personal use prior to passage of the Volstead act is immune from seizure.

The court made this ruling in the case of Wm. G. Street, who sought to enjoin the Lincoln Safe Deposit company of New York from forcing him to remove liquor from its vaults and to stop revenue officers from proceeding against him.

Justice Clark in the majority opinion, said that congress in passing the Volstead act did not contemplate
seizure of liquor for personal use.

Supreme court today ordered the release of Julius W. (Nicker) Arnstein on a writ of habeas corpus.

Lower courts refused the writ but their decisions were reversed.

NON-PARTISANS WILL NOT GIVE UP PROGRAM

By United Press Leased Wire
Bismark, N. D.—"We are going ahead with our program," Gov. Lynn J. Frazier, elected for a third term as head of the Non-Partisan league ticket in North Dakota, said today.

Loss of a majority in the lower house of the legislature will not handle the league industrial program, leaders declared.

Non-Partisans were conceded a majority of one in the senate but independents claimed a majority of three in the house.

Besides passing five initiated amendments calculated to hamper the league workings in the state, independents succeeded in re-electing Secretary of State Thomas Hall and electing the state treasurer, railroad and warehouse commissioner, superintendent of public instruction, supreme court justice and two representatives in congress.

THIS BANK PRESIDENT SHOULD BE A SLEUTH

By United Press Leased Wire
Chicago.—John A. Carroll, president of the Hyde Park state bank and the Cook County Bankers' association, despaired of the ability of police and court matters in his own hands.

He recovered $257,000 worth of checks stolen in a holdup of his bank messenger and brought about the arrest of one of the robber gang who confessed the names of accomplices.

Carroll attacking "police efficiency," declared six hours after he furnished
the department names of the bank robbers, no arrests had been made.

MRS. HARDING WIVES WOMAN CONGRESSMAN

By United Press Leased Wire
Muskegon, Okla.—Miss Alice M.
Robertson, congress woman-elect,
from the second Oklahoma district, today received a telegram from Mrs.
Warren G. Harding congratulating her on her victory.

"My sincere congratulations on your magnificent victory. My best wishes for your success."

WOMAN FINDS BODY OF MURDERED CHICAGOAN

By United Press Leased Wire
Chicago.—Joseph Yawenczewski was found murdered early today on a lonely street on the southwest side of the city. A woman on her way to a grocery store discovered his body lying across the street. Police hurried to the scene and found the body about twelve hours previously in an automobile. The man had been beaten severely and stabbed several times.

No clues were found to the murderers. Identification was made by his wife.

BANDIT VICTIM WILL RECOVER FROM WOUNDS

By United Press Leased Wire
Kansas City, Mo.—Hospital authorities here today said that David Pollock, Oshkosh, Wis., overall salesman, who was shot on Saturday, would probably recover. No trace has been found of the bandits who shot Pollock when they attempted to rob him in a taxicab.

Pollock will have to stay at the General hospital, where he was taken following the shooting, for several days, physicians said.

TWO AUTOMOBILES ARE DAMAGED IN COLLISION

The rear end of the Percy H. Jensen company's truck was damaged in a collision with A. M. Crossman's automobile early Monday morning at the corner of Appleton and Franklin streets. The Jensen truck was proceeding west on Franklin and had almost passed the intersection when the Crossman machine approached from the north and struck it. The Crossman machine had its lights and fenders damaged, but neither Mr. Jensen or
Mr. Crossman were injured.

JUDGE FIGHTS SUPPRESSION OF EVIDENCE

Palmer's Powers to Drop Case Against Miners Is Questioned in Court.

SAID MINERS SURRENDERED
Attorney General Wants to Drop Case Because Strike
Was Ended.

Indianapolis, Ind.—Powers of Attorney General Palmer in ordering the suppression of facts in the government's case against 125 coal miners and operators charged with conspiracy to limit production, were probed
today by Federal Judge A. B. Anderson, before whom the case was called.

"I don't care what becomes of this case," said Anderson, when Charles Evans Hughes, counsel for the miners, took exception to the court's statement that the miners had "flouted his strike injunction for thirty days."

"What I want to know is whether I am to be used as a mere puppet pulled by strings at Washington," the judge continued.

"I want to know by what power a United States law officer acts when he can order pertinent facts in a case before this court eliminated."

Anderson quizzed Daniel W. Simms, former assistant attorney general, L.
Ert Slack, special assistant U. S. attorney, and Frederick Van Nuy, United States attorney, concerning correspondence they had with Palmer.

They testified that Palmer had ordered them to eliminate facts in the miners' trial, occurring between April 1, 1919, and Nov. 1, 1919. Palmer, according to C. B. Ames, former assistant attorney general and who represented Palmer here today, said that the attorney general considered the injunction proceedings as dead matter
because of the miners' surrender.

Regarding a conference between twelve Judge Anderson, Palmer and the latter's aides, Anderson said:
"Mr. Palmer considered that the miners had surrendered."

"I told him that I thought there had been a surrender but that I differed with him regarding who had made the surrender."

"I will not send bootleggers to jail
and put postoffice embezzlers behind the bars and allow other men if they are guilty, go free," said Anderson.

"There is not a bit of truth in Palmer's statement that an understanding was reached when Mr. Palmer was here."

"The attorney general does not want to send those miners to jail for striking," said Ames.

"He feels that they acted in good faith and that therefore all facts previous to Nov. 1, 1919 should be eliminated."

Just before questioning Simms regarding Palmer's visit here Dec. 8, 1919, Judge Anderson declared the trial should be continued and would rule on the motion for continuance
later.

Simms declared that a conference was held here on December 3 between Palmer, Judge Anderson, Slack, Judge
C. B. Ames, Assistant to Palmer, Van Nuy and himself.

"There was no suggestion at this conference that any evidence be suppressed," Simms said.

It was at this conference that Anderson and the rest were reported to have agreed with Palmer that certain facts in the case should be suppressed.
The "understanding" mentioned in Palmer's letter to Simms was a mystery to him, Simms said.

Simms said he resigned because the facts which Palmer suggested should be eliminated, would "take the heart
out of the case."

"Simms," he wrote to Palmer, explaining his resignation.

Bear meat is to be served at the knights of Pythias luncheon at Cas to hall Thursday evening. Officials of the lodge state that there has al ready been captured so there is no possibility of disappointment in this regard.

Attendance of all the members is expected so final arrangements may be made for the gathering of Fox River valley knights November 30, at Lawrence Memorial chapel. Local knights are showing more enthusiasm in this Pythian event than any held so far, believing that it will be the biggest gathering of its kind ever held. It is estimated that nearly 400 candidates will be secured by the various lodges for the initiation.

Garfield Lodge, Milwaukee, which has one of the best degree teams in the United States, will confer the rank of page. It will be considered an auspicious occasion for those who en-

NIGHT RIDER CASE IS SET FOR TRIAL DEC. 5

The case of Mrs. Lillian May Black vs. Stephen Blum, et. al., is set for trial Monday, Dec. 6. It is one of the cases that had its origin in the night rider raids during the war. The plaintiff alleges that her husband was handled in such a manner as to cause the impairment of his mind. The deposition of Mrs. Black was taken at the courthouse Saturday before Court Commissioner L. Hugo Keller. Mr. Kolinski of the firm of Cochems, Wells & Kolinski appeared for the plaintiff and P. H. Martin of Martin, Martin & Martin of Green Bay for the defendants. The case will be tried before an outside judge.

ter, because the work is seldom put on in such an elaborate manner.

The knights will also make plans for the Thanksgiving party to be given on Thursday evening, November 25, at Castle hall. The gathering Thursday night practically sets the social machinery in motion for the season.

Truck Overturns

The Telulah water delivery truck tipped over Sunday night while being driven from John street to the spring. The cab was damaged and some of the bottles were broken. The driver escaped without injury.

ARREST EIGHT BOYS FOR PLAYING "NIGGER GOLF"

Eight Appleton young men were arrested Sunday afternoon when a shed in which they were "shooting craps" was raided by Detective Joseph Schmuller and Officer Edward Ratzman. The game was in progress in a building back of one of the College avenue stores west of Appleton street. Those arrested were Theodore Burnette, 1030 Richmond street; Robert Heigl, 1074 Eighth street; Philip and William Albrecht, 1116 Second street; William Versteegen, 359

Locust street; Edward Stoegbauer, 724 State street; George Nabbefeldt, 1103 Franklin street; and Cyril Kornely, 376 Cherry street.

All eight were taken into court on Monday morning on the charge of gambling. Four of them, Versteegen, Philip and William Albrecht and Stoegbauer pleaded guilty and were fined $10 and costs. The others, Burnette, Heigl, Nabbefeldt and Kornely were discharged, as it appeared that they were not participants in the game.

Personal

Mrs. George Hoh, 949 Harrison street, who submitted to an operation last Friday morning at St. Elizabeth hospital is improving rapidly. Nine Hundred Persons Attend Annual Safety First Meeting Here Sunday.

Nearly 900 persons heard the "safety first" message at the annual Kimberly-Clark and Neenah Paper company massmeeting Sunday afternoon at Lawrence Memorial Chapel. Ernest Mahler, Neenah, general superintendent of the Kimberly-Clark Co., delivered an effective talk on the present business crisis.

"We have been hearing," said Mr. Mahler, "and reading very much about the closing of mills and factories throughout the country. Automobile industry is perhaps the best example of this."

Mr. Mahler said that the whole automobile industry was on the rocks. There is hardly an auto factory in the country that has not laid off some of its help, and many factories have closed altogether. The slump in the manufacture of automobiles causes a corresponding depression in the tire industry, Mr. Mahler said. Tire manufacturing companies have laid off from 25 to 50 per cent of their help.

"The city of Akron, Ohio, has lost 60,000 inhabitants," said Mr. Mahler, "because there is no work for them."

The speaker said that the leather industries had suffered the most. They started by shutting down one day a week, then two, and today practically every leather tannery in the United States is closed.

The mills that run with the most efficiency are the ones that will continue to operate," said Mr. Mahler. "Here are two mills side by side. Both are making the same article out of the same materials. One is flourishing, the other failing. What is the reason? In the former mill you have workmen who are doing an honest day's work for their money. They are doing a little more than they are asked to. They have the interest of their employer at heart.

"In the other mill are men who care nothing about how things run so long as they get their money. They are not careful to save; and they are always looking for a chance to shirk on the job. It is easy to see which mill will continue to run.

"What can we do to keep up the mill in this temporary business crisis? Our system is made up of two departments, the executive department and the mill department. It is the duty of the executive department to give orders to the foremen in the mill, to sell the goods, and to maintain the business of the mill in general.

"The mill departments must make the goods. They must make it as well as possible and as quickly as possible. When we have such a condition in a mill, then will we be able to keep up the high wages."

The speaker said that when labor was hard to get, men would lay down on their jobs. They were a burden

Dorland Says Tanlac Went Right After His Troubles and He is Now Enjoying Perfect Health.

"I wouldn't take a hundred dollars a bottle for the good Tanlac has done me," said Joseph Dorland, 887 Eastern Ave., Minneapolis, Minn., an employee of the Twin City Rapid Transit Company.

"Stomach trouble and rheumatism had been pulling me down for four years and at the rate I was losing ground I knew I couldn't stand up under the strain much longer. I had little or no appetite and my stomach was sour most of the time. I would blow up with gas something awful and at times felt like I was choking to death.

I had rheumatism in my knees, and sometimes they were so stiff I could not bend over at all.

"About two months ago a friend of mine advised me to try Tanlac. Well, it went right after my troubles and I kept taking it and getting better until now I can't tell there was ever anything at all the matter with me. I can eat anything set before me and never suffer a bit afterwards. The rheumatism has disappeared entirely and I'm as active as I ever was. I'm stronger than I've been in many years, and I'm convinced that for troubles like mine Tanlac just can't be beat."

Tanlac is sold in Appleton by John E. Voigt, E. O. Brown, Shiocton, Dr. J. M. Sattler, Bear Creek, H. E. Abend, Dale, R. E. Lowell, Little, Chute.

COLLISION TIPS CAR INTO DITCH

Six Young People Are Endangered When Their Automobile Overturned.

Six young people were shaken up and slightly bruised when their touring car was upset by another car driven by a woman, at the corner of Second avenue and Oneida street Sunday afternoon.

The former car was driven by Everett Schultz, New London, and contained Miss E. Schultz, New London, the Misses Esther and Dora Radtke, Evelyn and Lorain Reetz of this city. The name of the lady driving the car was not obtained.

The Schultz car was going north on Oneida street and was about to cross Second avenue when the other machine approached from the east. The woman driver appeared unable to stop, and caught the New London car under the fender in such a way as to tip it into a ditch, pinning the occupants within.

Mr. Schultz received several cuts and minor bruises. Miss Dora Radtke's knee was injured and Miss Esther Radtke suffered a bruise under one eye. The others had minor cuts and bruises and all were badly shaken up. The fenders, windshield and top of the Schultz car were broken.

LAUGH WITH HER

Miss May Peterson

MAY PETERSON IS LAUGH ADVOCATE

Popular Singer, Who Is Coming Here, Warns Against Sour Faces.

May Peterson, the brilliant young American prima donna, who will be heard again in this city at Lawrence Memorial chapel on Tuesday, January 18, as a number on the Appleton Community Course, says: "I like something bright and clean, with a lot of 'go' in it. That makes everybody happy and feeling as if they had the best time of their lives when they leave the theatre, opera or concert."

"I don't think," continues Miss Peterson, "that the true philosophy of laughter has ever been written. All learned books on the subject that I have read are merely discussions of the comic. But true laughter has further reaches than that. We not only laugh at jokes and capers but our best laughing is from the sheer joy of life."

"Little children laugh at nothing just as young lambs and puppies frisk, for it is because they tingle with life—currents and are surcharged with electric animality. And in us grown-up people there is the same kind of gleeful expression, a deep laughter of the spirit that often never gets so far as a smile on the lips."

"Laughter is the sign of life-power. It is the foam that breaks upon the crest of life's highest waves and makes life worth living. I warn you to beware of the man or the woman who has no treasures of hidden mirth that sparkle like the sunshine and who cannot enjoy a good hearty laugh," says the Golden Girl of the Metropolitan.

EAGLES TO CELEBRATE ON ARMISTICE DAY

An elaborate program has been prepared by the Fraternal Order of Eagles for an Armistice day celebration at Eagle hall Thursday evening, November 11. The principal address is to be delivered by Judge A. M. Spencer of the municipal court. Music will be furnished by the Acme orchestra.

The program opens with an orchestra selection, followed by short introductory remarks by the officers. The chaplain will lead the prayer, after which there will be community singing and a selection by the "Rainbow quartet." Community singing will follow the address by Judge Spencer and the program will close with the salutation to the flag ceremony.

The program committee consists of Edward S. Tornow, John C. Fiedler and William C. Denstedt.

CEMENT FIRM PREPARES FOR BUILDING SEASON

Campbell & Morgan have purchased a new cement mixer for their plant at Appleton Junction which they will operate next season in connection with the one they now have. The new mixer will more than double the company's capacity.

The company is planning on making several other changes before next summer which will add to the output. Eugene E. Campbell stated Tuesday that the indications are that a large amount of building will be done in Appleton next spring regardless of the price of building material and that his firm does not propose to be caught napping.

C. A. Pardee, who injured his leg at his store about a week ago, was able to be on duty at his store Monday morning for the first time since the accident.

Town Talk

Autos Collide

A touring car driven by Charles Werth, Kimberly, and a truck driven by Andrew Grieshaber, 110 Weimer street, collided Sunday afternoon on Walter avenue. Both machines were slightly damaged, but the drivers were unhurt.

Car in Ditch

Autoists using the road south of Kimberly Sunday report a Ford touring car in the ditch with the windshield broken and fenders bent. It is not known whether anyone was injured in the accident.

Cars are Damaged

The owner of a large closed car had the fender stripped from his machine on the Mackville road Sunday afternoon when he failed to give a large touring car enough room to pass. The latter machine went partly into the ditch, but "side swiped" the other car and managed to gain the roadway again. The names of the car owners are not known.

Roads Impassable

Two of the roads in the town of Grand Chute, the Spencer and Badger, proved quite troublesome to autoists Sunday. The rain of Friday night and Saturday seemed to make the bottom disappear, and farmers were called upon several times to extricate mired cars. It is said that these roads become almost impassable every time a heavy rain occurs.

Students Break Window

Students of the Milwaukee School of Engineering broke a window in a street car standing on North street Saturday evening, while the revelry following the football game was in progress. The matter was reported to the police, but the identity of the guilty persons could not be ascertained.

New Patrolman

E. Bliss Carnes, 838 Morrison street, has been appointed probationary patrolman on the Appleton police force. He has already assumed his new duties.

Barbers Initiate

The initiation of new candidates will take place at a meeting of the Barbers' Union Monday evening at trades and labor hall. Guy Manning will be the host at a lunch and smoker after the meeting. Cards will be played.

Dismantle Building

The work of dismantling the old Globe hotel at the corner of College avenue and Superior street, which was purchased a year ago, by the August Brandt company was commenced Monday morning to make room for the new sales establishment and garage which the company is to erect within the next few months.

Has Appendicitis

Henry Krause, proprietor of Bohrer hotel on Walnut street, was taken critically ill with appendicitis Sunday and was taken to St. Elizabeth hospital, where he submitted to an operation. His condition Monday was improved.

Truck is Stalled

A delivery truck belonging to William C. Field was stalled in the loose car covering a new sewer on South Division street in the Fourth ward Saturday afternoon and went down up to the hubs. Several hours were required to get it to solid earth.

UNIVERSAL HAPPINESS

is being sought throughout the world. IT IS WITHIN THE REACH OF ALL!

The Fountain of Youth is not far away. The happiness which the Universal will furnish to you will renew your YOUTH. Regardless of your mood the UNIVERSAL has a message for you. It will keep space with you in your gayer hours. In your hours of sadness, it will sympathize with you as no human friend can do.

Happiness means Health. People spend a large share of their means often in seeking health while they could have preserved it at a very small cost had they realized what it meant to them. Music is as essential to happiness as health and is held by many of the advanced physicians of today to be a promoter of health.

MR. HARDING'S PEACE PLANS

During the campaign Mr. Harding promised the country that if elected to the presidency he would promptly call together the ablest minds in the party to consider and advise upon the best means for bringing the nations together in association for the promotion of world peace. Announcement from Marion just before he left on his southern trip shows that the president-elect intends to carry out this promise and that the conference will take place immediately following his return. The indications are that the consultations will not be limited to members of the Republican party, but will include Democrats who have been conspicuous in their relation to foreign affairs, including Senators Hitchcock, Underwood and Simmons, former Secretary of State Lansing, Secretary Colby, Frank L. Polk and Chief Justice White.

Among the senate Republicans Mr. Harding is expected to call in are Lodge, Johnson and Lenroot, and undoubtedly there will be others. Outside of the senate these names are included in the list of probable advisers: former President Taft, Elihu Root, Charles E. Hughes, Herbert Hoover, Henry White, Republican members of President Wilson's peace commission, Henry P. Davidson and Myron T. Herrick, former ambassador to France. Aside from some of our leading university presidents, these prospective advisers of the president-elect represent the political brains of the nation who could reasonably be looked to for White house guidance. They represent not only men of great ability but men in the main in whose collective judgment the country would have great confidence in the determination of wise foreign policy.

There will be two questions for consideration. One is the conclusion of peace with Germany, and in the disposition of this question it will be of paramount importance that the United States not merely protects its national interests but that it preserves in good faith the war relationship it entered into with the allies. A resolution simply declaring peace will accomplish nothing in either direction, and we believe both Mr. Harding and those of influence in the new administration thoroughly realize that a situation exists which requires affirmative treaty action, jointly with the allies.

The other question, that of a peace league, will undoubtedly be disposed of to the satisfaction of our own and the other nations with which we shall join in this great undertaking. When the new administration commences to function on the subject of peace it will be from the constructive rather than the destructive standpoint, and it is fair to assume that the tremendous responsibility of insuring world peace will be met conscientiously, soberly and resourcefully. The most logical assumption is that the existing league will be entered under reservations. It is significant that The Chicago Tribune already suggests ratification with the Lodge reservations. Herbert Hoover, an authority on European conditions, said the day before election: "To reopen the treaty of Versailles for renegotiation would bring complete chaos to Europe and calamity upon us from it. The stability of the whole of Europe hangs upon the maintenance of the treaty, and the economic situation in the United States depends upon maintaining the stability and gradual recuperation of Europe's buying power. Therefore the logic of the situation drives this constructive program to the necessary modification of the present covenant and ultimate ratification of the treaty with modification or amendments." Mr. Taft will of course favor ratification, and it is extremely probable that Root, Hughes, Herrick, Davidson, Lodge and Lenroot will advise this action, recommending reservations to the covenant and amendment of the treaty proper. Knox, Johnson and others will oppose, but their opposition is to any treaty and any league, and therefore their influence is not likely to go far.

Mr. Harding's method of approaching the problems of international peace will be commended, and there are abundant reasons for believing that out of the conferences to be held will be evolved a sane, honorable and acceptable solution.

THE SCHOOL FIGHT

There is an open fight over Wisconsin's educational policy. The most hopeful sign of improvement is that there is an open fight. Major E. A. Fitzpatrick, secretary of the state board of education, is leading the fight upon the present system, and Superintendent of Public Instruction Cary is leading the defense of the system. Major Fitzpatrick represents new blood, new ideas, in educational policy. Mr. Cary the old. Mr. Cary has been in office 18 years. Today Wisconsin ranks about 33rd in standing of its public schools. The inference is clear, although it may be unfair to Mr. Cary.

However, if Mr. Cary were to more freely admit the state's shortcomings in educational affairs instead of vainly trying to refute the facts presented by investigators he would appear to better advantage. Mr. Fitzpatrick says the present machinery is "antiquated and obstructive." He says we must have a "reconstruction of . . . state educational administration and a comprehensive state educational program under competent and courageous educational leadership." In this we agree entirely, and we also agree with his demand that educational affairs be taken out of politics. We shall not get very far in any reform of our schools until we take their control and direction out of the hands of politicians.

Wisconsin is educationally sick. It needs a new system from top to bottom, a reorganization of state management with a modernly conceived program of education, reorganization of local control and the adoption of progressive policies. What Major Fitzpatrick says regarding the condition of public education in its relation to the state applies with equal force to the condition in its relation to the municipality and community. And the treatment should be the same.

MEXICAN STABILITY

Evidences accumulate that Mexico is settling down into peaceful, safe, and stable life. The latest testimony to this effect comes from the Chamber of Commerce of the United States. It reports that more than a hundred American houses have begun business in Mexico in the last two years. Besides this, numerous American Manufacturers and merchants, as well as Chambers of Commerce and other associations are making inquiry concerning the Mexican credit situation, the volume of business, the attitude of American concerns and other important phases of the general trade situation across the Rio Grande.

The American Chamber of Commerce in Mexico City says that banks and commercial agents report that in every part of Mexico business is better than it has been, and that Americans in Mexico feel greatly encouraged. If this testimony had come from political sources likely to be influenced by the present Mexican government, it would be necessary to discount it; but coming, as it does, from American business men located in Mexico, who are reporting for the benefit of their colleagues in the United States, it must be accepted as representing actual conditions.

Recognition of the present Mexican regime by the United States government requires only such a demonstration of stable conditions as this report seems to outline. Advices from Washington indicate that the state department is considering early action of this character and that formal recognition of the present provisional government is near at hand. Only recently Secretary of State Colby stated that the new Mexican government was giving signs of "stability, sincerity and a creditable sensitiveness to its duties and their just performance." If it should transpire that we are really approaching an end of the troublesome "Mexican question" alike to ourselves and the world at large, it will be a vindication of President Wilson's policy of patience and forbearance toward that distracted country, for it must be agreed that a peaceful solution is greatly to be preferred to armed intervention.

CAN WE INCREASE GROWTH?

A frequent query sent by readers and one which I am unable to answer satisfactorily is this: Has any remedy, appliance or method of treatment been found which will increase growth or stature?

No specific remedy or treatment is known to increase growth. Yet we have acquired a certain insight into the mystery of growth in the past few years, and there is no doubt that a definite stimulation of growth can be produced in certain cases by the skillful and judicious administration over a period of many months or years of appropriate ductless gland hormones. Readers need not write to ask me what these ductless gland hormones are and where they may obtain them. I don't know. The physician on whom personal knowledge of the case is the only one who can answer that question. I have mentioned here the case of a girl of fourteen years who grew over an inch in height in three months of such treatment, the case of a boy of two years who had ceased to grow but increased rapidly in height and weight on hormone treatment, and the case of a boy of 13 years whose growth had been for some time at a standstill but who increased two inches in height in ten months, and three more inches in the next ten months of appropriate ductless gland hormone treatment. If curious, ask your doctor; I can tell no more about the question.

Everyone who reads has learned something about certain as yet chemically unidentified food accessory factors known as vitamins, something present in some foods and lacking in other foods; something apparently indispensable in the human dietary; something essential for normal growth and nutrition.

Fresh raw milk is rich in vitamins; milk which has been pasteurized, sterilized, boiled, canned, condensed or dried is poor in vitamins. The whole grains or cereals are rich in vitamins; the ultra-refined cereal products of our day are uniformly poor in vitamins—for example, polished rice is lacking in essential vitamins, whereas unpolished (whole) rice, brown rice, red rice) is rich in vitamins; likewise refined or patented white flour is vitamin-rich, whereas whole wheat flour is vitamin-rich. The green leafy vegetables which are eaten raw, fruits eaten with skins, the skins of potatoes (baked), seed or grain wheat unground and very thoroughly cooked as a breakfast cereal, fresh meats in preference to preserved or salted meats, fresh eggs as the equivalent of fresh meat, are all valuable items of the dietary by reason of their vitamin content. There is good reason to believe that an ample supply of such items favors normal growth; and that a shortage or inadequate variety of such vitamin-rich items in the dietary tends to impair growth. Probably nothing favors normal growth in children and youths more than a liberal daily allowance of fresh milk and a beverage.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Chronic Appendicitis

Can chronic appendicitis be cured without a surgical operation, and if so, how? (Mrs. G. G. S.)

ANSWER—No.

Decay of Children's Teeth

What causes the teeth of a child four years old to decay? Can you suggest anything to give to prevent such decay? (C. D. L.)

ANSWER—Insufficient use (food too refined, and hence little need for mastication), a diet containing too much carbohydrate and insufficient mineral matter, such as the sickly "breakfast foods" commonly fed instead of wholesome natural cereals, insufficient fresh fruit and vegetables.

Lotion for Blackheads and Pimples

Please recommend a good lotion to use for a mild case of blackheads and pimples on the face. (A. W. L.)

ANSWER—Each alternate night give the face a hot soap and water scrubbing, rinse well, and then apply this lotion over night:

Equal parts of sublimed sulphur, alcohol, compound tincture of lavender, glycerin, camphor water.

While out he was arrested for abduction, went to jail and on getting out found Rosie was married to John De Gighars.

Growth of Auto Industry

By Frederic J. Haskin

New York City—The motorization of America is revealed as one of the greatest and most astonishing of industrial and social phenomena by facts and statistics which have been collected and published by the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce here.

Even though all persons over 20 years of age have witnessed the whole process by which the United States has been literally put on wheels, one does not realize until he considers the figures what an enormous undertaking it has been, or what great changes it has wrought. Neither does he realize, except by comparative figures, how the United States has outstripped all other nations in this regard.

Although Barnum and Bailey advertised a "horseless vehicle" as one of their chief attractions in 1896, although there were motor vehicle laws in force in New York City in 1899, and although "traction engines and cars" at Columbia University in 1900, although 300 different kinds of automobiles had been built or were being built in this country in 1895, and United States mail was collected in an automobile in Buffalo in 1899, yet the real growth of the automobile as an industry and a social institution did not begin until about 1910. In that year less than 200,000 motor cars were made in the United States, and in 1920, when the automobile was still regarded as a freak and curiosity.

The actual conquest of America by the automobile has therefore taken place in 10 years, during which time this nation has become beyond a doubt the most completely mobilized people that ever existed on the face of the earth, if a few small horse-using tribes of savages be excepted. There are now nearly seven million automobiles in the United States and more than a million and a half of them were made last year. There is almost one automobile for every 14 inhabitants of the United States, which means that with a little crowding half of the population of this country could get up and travel at the same instant.

There are indeed several states in which the whole population could climb aboard and ride, leaving not a single foot on the ground. This is manifestly true of California, where there is one car for every 6.07 of population, and of Iowa with one car for every 6.15, and of Nebraska with one car for every 6.54 of population. Mississippi falls far below the average, there being but one car for every 45 of population according to an estimate. In general the western states, where wealth is evenly distributed, lead in the proportion of cars to the population.

Thus, although New York State is the largest user of motor cars, New York City comes close to the Mississippi mark with only one car for every 43.21 of population. The most completely motorized cities are Des Moines, Iowa, with one car for every 6.93 of population, and Omaha, Nebraska, with one for every 7.69. As these figures show, it is the automobile-riding farmer of the West who brings up the average, for the cities fall below the state averages. Nearly two and a half million passenger cars are owned by farmers in the United States. Some rural sections of the West are undoubtedly the most completely motorized places in the world. As once every man in the West rode a horse, so now most men—and most women—ride jitneys.

Canada Our Closest Rival

The extent to which the United States has outstripped the rest of the world in the manufacture and use of motor cars is almost incredible. Only Canada rivals us at all. In the Dominion there is an automobile for every 21 of population. The Hawaiian Islands come next with a car for every 29 of the population, New Zealand has a car for every 48 of population, and Cuba has one for every 97. But when you come to compare the United States with the other great nations of the earth, our lead is found to be enormous. Great Britain has but one car to every 180 of population, France one car to every 198 people, and Germany one car to every 565 people.

Those nations which are becoming so completely motorized that soon production will have to lag until the depreciation spurs up demand, should cheer themselves by a glance at a map of the world which has been prepared to show the numbers of automobiles in use in all parts of it. This shows that the motorization of the world has just begun. In the European countries just cited it is probable that the relatively small number of automobiles owned is due to the fact that a large part of the population is too poor to own any sort of transportation. But this applies only to a few crowded countries. In all of eastern Europe, in all but a small fraction of Africa, and a mere dot on the vast expanse of Asia, the number of motor cars in use is less than one to every 5,000 of population, which means that the motorization of those countries has not yet begun.

In most of them, of course, it cannot begin until roads have been improved, but experience shows that the road improvement always goes along with the increase of motor cars. It also seems to be true that the thinly populated parts of the earth are the ones where motor cars are most valuable. In cities passenger cars, except when used by professional and business people for professional and business purposes, are generally a luxury. There are street cars and buses which will take you almost anywhere you want to go.

But out in the great planes of the West, a motor car is a necessity to every man. It literally adds years to his life by taking him 20 or 40 miles to town in a fraction of the time he used to spend on the same trip. His truck puts him in touch with markets that otherwise he could not reach.

So the vast spaces of Asia, Africa and Eastern Europe are undoubtedly waiting to be conquered by the motor car. And this country exported but 4 per cent of its production of motor cars in 1919.

These comparative figures are singularly revealing of the character of America. They show how much more evenly wealth is distributed in this country than in any other. They show how this uniform abundance persists in the West, and how in the great eastern centers it is giving way to a sharp cleavage between poverty and riches, such as exist in most of Europe. It shows our enormous appetite for whatever is new and exciting. When the automobile band wagon came along, we climbed on and rode. We are still riding.

Q. Please give the program rendered by Jenny Lind when Barnum introduced her to the American people. A. W. S.

A. The program rendered by Jenny Lind upon her first appearance in the United States on September 11, 1850, was as follows: Casta Diva. Duet with Belletti from Rossini's "I Turchi in Italia." Trio Concertantes from Meyerbeer's "Camp of Silesia." Swedish "Herdsmen's Song." Greeting to America "National Prize Song" by Bayard Taylor, set to music.

Q. When and where is the Temple of Agriculture to be built? M. A.

A. An active campaign is now under way for the financing of such a project. The National Board of Farm Organizations has already acquired property at 1731 I street, Washington, D. C. The building thereon will be used until expansion is necessary and it is believed that by that time the $1,250,000 needed for the Temple will have been raised.

Q. What is the word meaning egg-shaped? A. C. D.

A. The word for which you ask is "ovoid."

Q. What is known as the "great epic of India"? E. D. H.

A. The great epic of India is the Mahabharata. It is the war story of the Bharatas, consisting of 18 books, containing an aggregate of 100,000 stanzas. It is supposed to have been composed by Vyasa, but in reality it shows the work of numerous revisers, who believe it to have been written by a number of different persons.

Q. When and where were roads first built? A. K. M.

A. Roads were built long before the beginning of authentic history. Herodotus tells us that a "Great King" in Egypt built a magnificent road across the sands for the transportation of the material for the Great Pyramids. This road, 10 feet thick in places, was built of huge stone blocks. Tracks of it are still found today. Probably the oldest authentic remains of a road surfaced with stone, early historians speak of roads radiating from Babylon as early as 2,000 B. C. Strabo speaks of the road between Babylon and Nineveh as being paved with brick laid in a mortar of asphaltum.

Q. At what age are people most apt to have appendicitis? G. W.

A. Appendicitis is most common in individuals between 10 and 30 years of age, although it has been seen in an infant under one year of age and in patients over 70. About 90 per cent of the cases occur in males.

Q. What was the "Chicago Day" attendance at the Columbian exposition? Has this ever been equalled or exceeded at any fair? J. N. P.

A. So far as statistics are available, it would seem that the Chicago Day attendance of the Columbian Exposition in 1893 exceeds that of all other expositions. The number of persons admitted during this day was 716,881. At the Philadelphia Exposition of 1876, the greatest number admitted in one day was 217,526; and at Paris, in 1889, 397,150. On San Francisco Day of the Pan-Pacific Exposition, 348,472 persons were admitted. The attendance of the Pan-American Exposition was materially diminished on account of unfavorable weather.

Q. Have the Army Reservists been called to drill in the past 18 months? T. H. W.

A. The War Department says that Army reservists have not been called to drill in the past 18 months, nor will they be called to drill this year.

Q. What is the origin of the expression "A little bird told me so"? B. H. J.

A. Probably the expression had its origin in a verse of the Bible, Ecclesiastes, Chapter 10, contains the words "—revile not the rich in the bedchamber for a bird of the heavens shall carry thy voice, and that which hath wings shall tell the matter."

Q. What was the nationality of Betsy Ross? R. A. D.

A. Mrs. Betsy Ross was a native American, born in Philadelphia in 1722.

Q. What does the word "Bible" mean? H. S. T.

A. The name Bible is taken from the Greek word "biblos," meaning book or collection of books.

Q. Was there ever a Nick Carter? If not, who wrote the books with that author's name? G. E.

A. Nick Carter was the pseudonym under which John Russell Coryell wrote

There are no wire stems in real flowers and while a rose by any other name may smell as sweet—let us say here and now so loudly that it can be heard from one end of the city to the other that there isn't any stiff price about a real value—and it isn't necessary to pay a hot house profit to pick from the rosiest and rarest stock of suits and overcoats in Appleton.

No matter who else differs in opinion the order of actual buying remains the same—

This store's policy of a small remuneration per garment brings to your wardrobe clothes that are pleasing to wear at a cost that is pleasant to recall—A YEAR AFTER THE DAY YOU BOUGHT THEM.

Esch Tells How Railroad Bill Came Into Existence

La Crosse Man Delivers Interesting Address at First Forum Meeting.

Congressman John J. Esch, La Crosse, author of the Esch-Cummins railroad law, spoke to approximately 1,000 people at the first meeting of Appleton Public Forum at Lawrence Memorial chapel 6:30 p.m. last night. He discussed the Esch-Cummins bill and the events which lead up to its enactment.

The first meeting was a decided success in every way. Several questions were asked of the speaker following his address, indicating that Appleton people are taking more than a passive interest in the railroad problem.

Attorney J. P. Frank presided at the first meeting.

On Nov. 11, 1918, the armistice was signed and there was no need of further war production and no more need of sending troops abroad," said Mr. Esch of La Crosse. "People immediately began sending complaints to congress," he said, "asking for restoration of the roads to private operation. We got them by the hundred. The president came before congress and said in his message that it was his intention to return the railroads to private operation on Jan. 1, 1920.

Wilson Had No Plan
"But as to the solution of the railroad problem he had no competent judgment of his own, and in the language of the street he passed the buck to Congress. It was a very big contract that he turned over to congress."

"We began our task as soon as the message was presented. No one who asked for a hearing before that committee was denied. They came to us by the hundreds from all portions of the United States. We began our hearings July 15, 1919, and they ran for twelve solid weeks. Three thousand six hundred and seventy pages of printed testimony was taken and hundreds of pages of exhibits.

"No less than thirty plans and seven complete measures were offered. After reviewing them the number was reduced to three. There were those who wanted a continuation of federal control, but there was no sentiment for federal control in either house. Then there was the plan of the Non-Partisan league which favored public ownership of public utilities including the railroads, and then there was also the Plumb plan.

Federal Ownership Falls
"Government ownership of railroads was not favored for the reason that upon careful investigation it was found not to be a success in European countries with the exception of a portion of Germany where they were Prussianized."

Mr. Esch stated that the most feasible plan appeared to be that of returning the roads to their owners without any revolutionary changes and to proceed as experience lighted the way. Five and one-half per cent was determined upon as a fair rate of return upon the physical valuation of the roads which is $18,900,000,000.

The country was divided into four territories under the new law and the interstate commerce commission was given the right to fix the valuation of the property in each district. To meet the prescribed rate of returns an increase of freight rates went into effect on Aug. 28, 1920, which, while it failed to increase the cost of living greatly, increased the tonnage of freight handled during the months of September and October.

Mr. Esch said that the new law provided for joint terminals which under federal control were found to be of great benefit, for waterways and for the solution of labor problems by the appointment of a labor board consisting of three representatives of railroads, three representatives of employees and three representatives of the general public.

In opening his address the speaker dwelt upon the shortage of freight cars and locomotives which was brought about by shipments to Europe in the early stages of the war and upon the crippled condition of the roads when this country entered the conflict.

Providence, R. I., was the first city in the United States to have open-air schools.

CHARGE KENOSHA MEN STOLE AUTO AND 'RAV' BOOZE

Appleton Police Arrest Two Suspects Here Last Saturday Morning.

WILL FACE TWO CHARGES

Chicago Police Officers Take Men to Windy City for Trial.

Detective John Duvall's well developed nose for criminals resulted in the arrest of two alleged automobile thieves and whisky runners here Saturday morning. The men were lodged in the police station until Monday when Chicago police officers called for them. They gave their names as William Lencione and Arthur Larson, both of Kenosha. Both admitted they were in a "serious mess" but would not admit they stole the car or were transporting booze.

Duvall became suspicious of the men when he noticed they made frequent visits to Appleton and apparently were not working. Friday night he hunted for their automobile and soon found it. The car—a Buick—bore only one license tag and the number, 214733, which, investigation showed had been issued to a Jeffrey car owned by Fred Ledgin, Green Bay garage man. An empty jug, redolent with the odor of whisky, was found in the car, it was said.

Lencione and Larson were summoned to the police station Saturday morning and declared they had been offered the use of the car by Mr. Ledgin because Lencione's car, which they had been using, was damaged at Green Bay. Mr. Ledgin was reached on the telephone and said that the car had been taken from the garage by the same man who put it in. Another search of the machine revealed a Chicago vehicle tag issued to Abe Arends of Chicago and communication with the Chicago police department disclosed that Mr. Arends' car had been stolen October 16 and his description tallied with the one held here. Lencione was taken to Green Bay where he was identified by Mr. Ledgin as the man who took the car into his garage and called for it later.

Other articles found in the stolen car indicated that the men were engaged in "running" whisky from Kenosha to northern Wisconsin cities and it is probable they will be tried on that charge as well as for stealing an automobile.

The peculiar coincidence of the case is that Chief George T. Trim and Mr. Arends, owner of the stolen car, had been friends for a quarter of a century.

START RED CROSS ROLL CALL SOON

Every Home Will Be Visited and Each Member of Every Family Enrolled.

Thursday the Outagamie Red Cross chapter will start the 1921 roll call. Every home in the county will be visited by a member of the roll call organization, and every member of the family will be asked to give his name and a dollar to keep the Red Cross work going and growing for another year.

Most of the people in the county are becoming familiar with what the county chapter is doing. They are beginning to realize that half of the funds which remain in the local treasury are bringing health, happiness, comfort and service to many homes.

Many other reasons are advanced by the officers of the county chapter for making this a record year for the total number of members.

The war is not over for 23,333 boys who are in United States hospitals recovering from wounds or illness. There are many crippled men in government trade schools trying to learn ways of making a living never tried by them before. Red Cross workers visited one of 21 hospitals, 320,735 times and gave 1,569,187 articles to patients. They were provided with an average of six entertainments a day. The Red Cross alleviates the tedious, lonesome hours for these boys.

Congress has authorized the Red Cross to give national aid. Emergency supply depots are maintained in many cities of the United States, and a relief organization reaching from coast to coast is ready to rush to any scene of disaster to give aid. One hundred fifty-nine communities in 39 great disasters have been helped in this way during 1919. A total of $421,000 was spent. The people killed number 650; injured 1,800; made homeless, 50,000.

Rescue and relief work in foreign lands, reduction of the death rate from preventable causes, lessening the infant death rate, frontier service and many other activities are included in the national program. This work is supported entirely by the contributions of those who enroll in the annual roll call.

SWINE SALE TO BE HELD WEDNESDAY

Record Attendance Expected at Poland China Auction at Hortonville.

County-wide interest is manifested in the first auction sale of Poland China Swine ever held here. The sales committee met last week to complete the final details, and a record attendance is expected at the sale, which opens at 12:30 o'clock Wednesday at Hortonville.

J. R. Love, Waukesha, has been engaged as auctioneer. He is known all through the north central states for his activities in Guernsey sales, and is also an expert on hogs.

Paul O. Nyhus, manager of the sales said that farmers will be able to purchase some of the best Poland China pure breeds in the county. There will be 20 gilts and 10 sires carefully picked from a large selection by Prof. M. H. Scott, Madison, hog expert of the college of agriculture.

The sale will be held regardless of weather conditions. Dabreiner's new garage building has been engaged by the Poland China association, and litterers will be arranged there.

state to prevent losses by outbreaks of hog cholera.

Dr. O. H. Eliason, state veterinarian, reported that the funds for paying indemnities to farmers for condemned animals for the year ending July 30, 1920, were depleted in April, 1920. In spite of warnings then sent out, testing continued locally so that approximately $25,000 worth of condemned animals await payment subject to action by the legislature.

The pressure and demand for protection of live stock from contagious diseases of all kinds has been so great throughout the year that the number of veterinarians and facilities of the live live stock sanitary division have not been sufficient to meet the situation.

For every 1,000 men between the ages of 18 and 45 years there are 1,230 women, in England 1,175, in Italy 1,228, in Germany 1,810 and in Austria Hungary 1,230.

LAWRENCE WHIPS ENGINEERS, 10 TO 0, IN HARD FIGHT

Collegians Score All Their Points in Last Three Minutes of Game.

BATTLE IN SEA OF MUD

Frequent Fumbles Spoil Many Chances to Score—Use Forward Passes.

After battling each other to a complete standstill for 25 minutes on a field covered with three inches of mud which was made deeper every minute by a cold drizzle, Lawrence college football players finally managed to score ten points and defeat the Milwaukee School of Engineering, on Lawrence field, Saturday afternoon. Lawrence's first drop kick, by Doering, booted the ball over the goal posts from the 15 yard line in the last three minutes of play and while the crowd was still celebrating, Kubitz, who went into the game in the final quarter, ran 40 yards through the entire Milwaukee team for a touchdown. Doering kicked the goal after time was called.

For a game which has no possible bearing on the state inter-collegiate football title it was as hard a battle as one could hope to see. Both teams, covered with mud, threatened to score several times, but the slippery ball coaxed out of some over eager athletes hands at the critical moment and the chance was lost. Fumbles were frequent and it was almost impossible to make long gains. Kubitz' run in the final ten seconds of the battle was by far the biggest gain of the day. Both teams worked several forward passes despite the slippery ball. Lawrence excelled in that department. Four successful passes netted nearly 100 yards for the collegians while several shorter heaves were completed. Both teams lost excellent chances to score when passes were dropped on or behind the enemy's goal line.

Visitors Outweighed

Lawrence outweighed the visitors several pounds to a man but found them worthy opponents. They were fast and shifty and seemed to have less difficulty negotiating the sea of mud than the home crew. Several excellent gains were made through the line, whereas Lawrence's attempt on rare occasions found the enemy writing a state-of-the-art defense when line plays were tried. It was too slippery to get started for long and runs and the game finally resolved itself into three tries over the line and then a punt. Frequent fumbles kept the ball changing hands constantly.

Johnson, Lawrence quarterback, was injured in the final quarter and was taken out. He was the only player to leave the game because of injury, despite the slippery field, indicating that the men are in perfect condition.

Both teams showed plenty of fight and fists were flying nearly all the time. The Milwaukee linemen were holding constantly but were not penalized. Both officials apparently were determined to let the athletes fight it out and as a result the game became a fight before it was over.

Fumbles Spoil Chances

Lawrence had its first chance to score in the first period, but fumbled on the Milwaukee 10 yard line. The remainder of the period was played in the middle of the field, neither side showing up to much of an advantage.

Fate prevented the Lawrence goal line from being crossed in the second quarter. Forward passes, coupled with some good line plugging put Milwaukee on the Blue and White 15 yard line. On a wide open play the ball was heaved to a Milwaukee player about five feet from the goal line, with not a Lawrence man around. He grasped the slippery oval in his arms but it squirted out and was intercepted, spoiling the team's best chance to score. Made desperate by its peril, McChesney's squad charged so hard on the next play that the Engineers fumbled. Lawrence recovered. Two tries at the line failed and then Pond kicked, but the ball coaxed out of his fingers and the kick went bad. Milwaukee recovered on Lawrence's 25 yard line. A forward pass was intercepted, however, and Lawrence again got the ball.

Two minutes after the third quarter started Lawrence opened a forward pass attack which carried the ball to the Engineers' ten yard line. On the next play Elliott plowed through to the five yard line. Lawrence fumbled on its second down but recovered. A third try was stopped and on the fourth down Johnson whipped a pass to Wheeler, who had crossed the goal line, but the end could not hang on to it and the big chance to score was lost. Milwaukee took the ball on its own 20 yard line and kicked into the middle of the field where it was in play when the final quarter started.

Kubitz Goes in

Kubitz showed a flash of speed at the start, going through the enemy line for six and seven yards at a time, but the march was too slow and pass one was tried. Olson heaved the ball twice and before the Engineers were aware of what was going on they were fighting on their own 15 yard line. Another pass failed, two at attempts to run the ball were stopped and then Doering used his toe. A little pile of sawdust was built in a puddle of water, but Doering missed it and dropped the ball into a small lake from where he lifted it over the goal posts.

Lawrence kicked off to the Engineers who placed it in play on their own 10 yard line. On the second play Kubitz skirted around the left end, and, aided by splendid interference, ran 40 yards for a touchdown. The timer's whistle blew ending the game as he crossed the 20 yard line but the score counted.

The Engineers saw red after Kubitz crossed the goal line and started a fist fight which nearly turned into a riot but spectators rushed in and order was restored after a few minutes.

KAUKAUNA TRIUMPHS OVER LITTLE CHUTE

The Kaukauna American Legion football team defeated Little Chute Sunday afternoon at Kaukauna ball park by a score of 13 to 0.

The Hollanders worked hard, but "Cub" Buck's men held them down. Both teams were handicapped by the mud and water on the field, which prevented them from playing in their best form. Considerable sawdust had been thrown on the field, however, so it was not as bad as it might have been.

Kaukauna is after the valley championship, and by beating Little Chute, feels that it has made quite a step in that direction.

There is in Mexico an increasing number of women dentists.

KAUKAUNA GRIDDEERS MADE IDLE BY RAIN

The Kaukauna high school team was laid off again Saturday when the game with Fond du Lac high school was called off on account of the weather.

The game was supposed to have been Kaukauna's last of the season. Captain McCarthy is trying to arrange for a game with Fond du Lac next Saturday.

Kaukauna has lost to Fond du Lac every year in basketball, but feel that its football team is capable of turning the tables.

TEXAS OIL MAN BETS $30,000 ON BALL GAME

By United Press Leased Wire
Ft. Worth, Texas.—More than $30,000 was bet by oil millionaires on a single baseball game in the Texas league last season, it was alleged at a meeting of owners of the Texas league when a protested game was thrown out by Walter Norris, retiring president, it became known today.

The game was played at Wichita Falls between that team and Dallas. Following the contest a riot occurred and Empire Miller was protected by a squad of police. No one wins by virtue of the fact the game was thrown out, and the money which has been held in escrow pending decision of the league will be turned back to the bettors, it was declared.

Texas league officials attending the meeting of the National association of minor league in Kansas City tomorrow will demand class "A" rating for the Lone Star circuit, it was declared here today.

President Roberts and Walter Norris, retiring president, said the Texas

BIG FIGHT STADIUM TO SEAT 100,000 FANS

New York.—The Dempsey-Carpentier fight for a purse of a half million dollars will be held July fourth near New York in a stadium with a capacity of 100,000.

This last development in the biggest bout of all times comes with the announcement of Charles B. Cochrane and Tex Rickard, two of the promoters.

"I am going to surprise the public that has been led to expect prices running up to $200," Rickard said. "If my plans come through the tickets will range from $5 to $40—no higher."

Rickard said an immense stadium would have to be built for an open air fight.

league was no longer willing to submit to draft from the western league which they regarded as a slower circuit.

Seven Major Grid Teams Are Still In Title Swim

(By Henry L. Farrell)
By United Press Leased Wire
New York.—Four major teams in the east and three in the west still have their heads above the water.

Penn state, Pittsburg, Princeton and Harvard are keeping well on top of the football surf in the east while Notre Dame, Ohio State and Illinois are stroking around the rocks in the west.

Penn State leads in the eastern race with a slight margin, having avoided a tie game which is the only blemish on the records of Pitt, Princeton and Harvard.

Notre Dame on the word of Coach Scanlon, of Purdue, is the best team in the west while Ohio State and Illinois still remain undefeated in the conference.

Georgetown, Cornell, Brown and Washington and Jefferson were overcome by the tide that rushed over them Saturday. Each suffered the first defeat of the season and went out of the race.

Heavy current is ahead for all the leaders with the possible exception of Notre Dame which has survived the hardest part of the schedule.

Penn State has Lehigh to face next and Pittsburg has a tough game with Washington and Jefferson. If both win they will then face each other Thanksgiving in one of the most vital games of the east.

Harvard has Brown, no easy mark, and then Yale, while Princeton has Yale next Saturday.

For the second time in succession Illinois and Ohio state will meet in a game to decide the western conference championship on Nov. 20.

Foreign-born women in the United States number more than 5,000,000.

SMITH AND O'DOWD TO BATTLE FIFTEEN ROUNDS

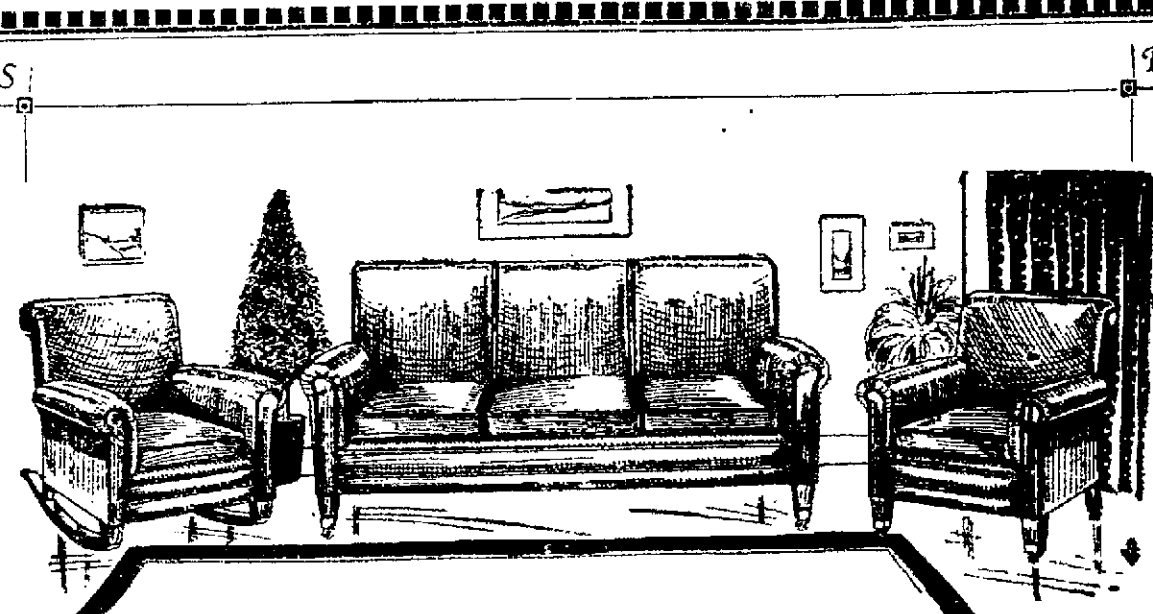

By United Press Leased Wire
New York.—Mike O'Dowd, former middleweight champion, and Jeff Smith will box 15 rounds to a decision tomorrow night in Madison Square Garden.

Tex Ricard will attempt to force Johnny Wilson, the champion, to meet the winner.

Billy Johnson and Rickard will pick an opponent to meet Benny Leonard, the lightweight champion, in a bout planned for Nov. 28.

H. J. Deinke left Saturday evening for New York, where he will represent the Wisconsin River Paper and Pulp company at the cost keeping committee meeting of the News Print Service bureau.

END PLAY IN SOCCER FOOTBALL THIS WEEK

The fourth games of the series in the grade school soccer football league will be played Tuesday afternoon. The games were scheduled for last Tuesday, but they were postponed on account of bad weather.

Columbus-Franklin team will meet
the First ward at First ward grounds.
Lincoln school will play against the

BEGIN ORGANIZATION OF BIBLE STUDY CLASSES

Robert M. Moore, president of Lake Forest College, Illinois, spoke at the Bible study Sunday afternoon at the Y. M. C. A. A. E. Eads, chairman of religious work committee, presided
and introduced the speaker. Mr.
Moore's subject was "The Value of Bible Study."

Active work on the organization of classes in Bible study will take place
Tuesday evening at the Y. M. C. A.

G. C. Cooley, A. A. Conrad and Herbert C. Cooley, all of Lawrence college, will teach the classes. The teachers' training class will be cared for by Prof. Emma in connection with his work at the college.

There will be a 6:45 o'clock supper
Tuesday evening and classes will follow.

MEET IN OSHKOSH TO PLAN BIG CONFERENCE

Representatives from a half dozen cities in the eastern part of the state, including Appleton, are to meet in Oshkosh Monday evening to prepare for the annual state Older Boys' and Girls' Conference which is to be held in the Sawdust city the Friday, Saturday and Sunday following Thanksgiving day. The call for the meeting was issued by William Manland, state president of the Wisconsin Sunday School Association.

The conference is for boys and girls between the ages of sixteen and twenty-four years and is held under the auspices of the Sunday School association. It is expected there will be an attendance of at least 600 and one of the features to be considered is that of entertainment. It is planned that the visitors shall be provided with lodging and breakfast, as well as dinner and supper on Sunday. Efforts will be made to procure places for all of the visitors by Sunday, November 14.

MRS. PEABODY LEAVES FOR MISSION MEETING

Mrs. H. E. Peabody, Wisconsin
president of the Women's Board of Foreign Missions of the Congregational church, left Monday morning for Topeka, Kan., where she will attend the annual meeting of the Women's Board of Foreign Missions of Interior States. She will probably return Saturday or Sunday.

Several hundred delegates from all parts of the upper Mississippi valley states will be in attendance. It is one of the most important missionary meetings in the middle west.

Kitchener, Ont., has just appointed its first police-woman.

SLIGHT RALLIES
ON GRAIN MARKETMarket Gets Off to Weak Start
But Recovered Later
in the Day.By United Press Leased Wire
Chicago.—After opening weak, due to short covering, grain markets on the Chicago board of trade rallied slightly today.

March wheat sold at a new low for the season, shortly after the opening, $1.87 1/2. Liquidation in other grains followed selling of wheat and general depressing news. Provisions were lower.

December wheat opened at $1.87, off 7, but regained 1/2 in later trading. March wheat was quoted at $1.84 at the opening, down 3/4, and advanced 1/2 before the close.

December corn, after opening off 1/2 at 80 1/2, advanced 1/2. May corn, opened down 1/4 at 85 1/2, but regained 1/2 in later trading.

December oats was down 1/2 at the opening, 51 1/2, but regained 1/2 before the close. May oats, quoted at the opening at 67 1/2, off 1/2, advanced 1/2 before the close.

LAWRENCE STUDENTS

Lawrence College students will be required to be vaccinated for small pox, according to Dr. Manuel Plant, president of Lawrence College. Two cases have been developed at Belknap Hall and it is deemed wise to safeguard the students from an epidemic in this way. Several weeks ago a light case was developed but it was thought that the disease was stamped out until within the past few days.
